

KOOL FESTIVAL FACTS!

1.

Tesselaar KaBloom, Festival of Flowers began in 2018. Continuing a proud family tradition, the Tesselaar's have been opening their flower farm to the public since 1954.

2.

This year's festival will showcase over 300,000 plants across 200 flower beds.

3.

This scale of planting equates to 1 ½ times the size of the MCG.

4.

Well over 3 million flowers will be on display with colourful, sweeping fields of cleomes, snapdragons, salvias, marigolds and more.

5.

The Festival is set across 25 acres of gardens where visitors are encouraged to roam free, enjoying the wide open spaces.

6.

New to Tesselaar KaBloom is a 10,000m² of wild flower meadows that visitors can wander through with meandering paths.
